BEST FOR A HONEYMOON

Bali, the Indonesian archipelago's most popular island, has all the ingredients for a perfect start to married life.

With jaw-dropping coral and lava beaches to chill-out on and an interior full of emerald-green jungle dotted with Hindu temples, Bali is an exotic adventure. This year, the UK's first direct flights to Jakarta (from May with Garuda Airlines) will make it even more attractive.

ROOMS FOR ROMANCE

Book a ten-night holiday staying in three beautiful boutique Alila Resorts, with transfers. For a calm, welcoming bolthole on the unspoiled east coast, Alila Manggis's thatched rooms have a true Balinese flavour. Plump for a deluxe and relax on a balconied daybed, looking across the pool to the sea. Inland, there's Alila Ubud, set above the Ayung River valley with a stunning infinity pool. Splurge on a beautiful terrace tree villa to watch monkeys bound through the treetops. Finally, on sparkling southwest-coast black sand lies the more contemporary Alila Soori. Hide away in your super-slick villa, where you'll have your own pool and dining area overseen by a personal butler.

DREAMY DAYS

Balinese spas are simply heavenly. The best is at Ubud, where a couple's Beauty and Balance treatment is set to birdsong in an al fresco room. For cultural outings, choose from Alila's menu of "journeys" – from temple visits to coffee making.

DINNER A DEUX

On your first night, share a megibung (a meat or seafood platter) in an oceanfront cabana decorated with flowers and candles. Or how about dining in a fragrant herb garden set among paddy fields?
