

One&Only Resorts is not one to sit on its laurels. From the Maldives to Mexico, Dubai to Australia, the resorts are always reinventing, adding and innovating. There is a lot going on this year with anniversaries, the announcement of new resorts joining the portfolio and a number of exciting collaborations with both established and up-and-coming luxury brands. For One&Only, 2016 is looking good.

CELEBRATION TIME

It's hard to believe it's 10 years since One&Only Reethi Rah opened its luxury Maldivian doors. This year sees it in full anniversary mode with 10 months of celebrations, inviting world-renowned chefs, winemakers, fashion designers and wellness practitioners to its shores. It has also expanded the fitness centre to include an outdoor training area and aerial yoga; and during 2016 it will expand its NEO boutiques, refresh the Beach Villas and add a new pool to fave teen spot, ClubOne. The spa sees former treatments return with added extras, and new to the books is the ESPA Wellness Package – heavenly for any world-weary parent.

FLAVOUR OF THE MONTH

Three Michelin-starred chef Yannick Alléno likes causing a stir. STAY at One&Only The Palm, Dubai is debuting his new ultra-innovative Extractions menu. It might sound more like dentistry than gourmet genius, but honestly – this is one to book the babysitter for. Four years in the making, his entirely new concept is aimed at

A EUROPEAN FIRST

One&Only has announced a new property is on the horizon and, even better news, it's in Europe. Finally guests can fly short-haul for their One&Only fix. The destination: Montenegro, the property: One&Only Portonovi overlooking the Adriatic's stunning Bay of Kotor (the Mediterranean's only fjord). Less than an hour from Dubrovnik airport, it is set to open in summer 2018 and will come complete with KidsOnly and OneTribe clubs, a host of sports and entertainment facilities including a tennis academy and marina, plus world-class restaurants and a unique One&Only spa. intensifying flavours through carefully crafted fruit and vegetable drinks to complement each dish. The pairings are bonkers but brilliant: crispy chocolate, sesame, orange and saffron sorbet is paired with an extraction of beet, mushrooms, celeriac and squash. So while the kids dream of fun-filled Dubai days, parents can enjoy quality time à deux with a unique twist.

HAPPY HOUR!

Family holidays don't have to be 100 per cent about the kids and what guests love about One&Only Resorts is that it gets the perfect balance between child's play and adult-only time. One&Only's latest collaboration with Diageo Reserve has parental downtime written all over it. The top six finalists from the World Class Bartender of the Year Awards are spending time in the resorts, using their craft to create bespoke cocktails from the finest spirits in Diageo's portfolio (think everything from Tanqueray to Ron Zacapa). The on-trend menus will reflect the resorts' individual locations – perfect sundowner material. Looking good, feeling great, One&Only Resorts has launched Laird Apparel – big-wave surfer Laird Hamilton's debut collection of performance-based menswear. The collection includes Off Shore, Fitness and Lifestyle and covers board and fitness shorts, hybrid surf and polo shirts, fitness items, graphic t-shirts, and technical jackets. Currently available at One&Only Palmilla, and rolling out across all resorts during 2016, it's great for everything from early morning paddleboarding to lunch on the terrace.

TRAVEL IN STYLE

Resort wear designer Marie France Van Damme has created the City to Resort wardrobe for One&Only guests. From a silk chiffon embroidered kaftan to a beautiful black and silver bikini, the capsule collection includes 10 versatile pieces that can be mixed and matched, day and night. One&Only guests can purchase it in advance or have it waiting on arrival.
